

Marla Jane Whitecotton

October 22, 1971 - September 9, 2024

Marla Jane (Tyler) Whitecotton, age 52, of Ozark, Arkansas passed from this life on Monday, September 9, 2024 in Fayetteville, Arkansas. As a young adult Marla spent her years raising her children and making a home for them. She made the most amazing holiday meals and loved having the family together. Marla always had a passion for creativity and making things. She loved writing and would have a card or letter for any event or just because. She had a vibrant presence and would do anything for you.

Marla's generosity and giving nature continued throughout her life as well as after her time on this Earth was concluded. She elected to become an organ donor and was able to bless others with such an incredible gift.

Marla was born October 22, 1971 in Paris, Arkansas to Charles Raymond and Karon Ray Self Kuykendall. Marla was preceded in death by her father; paternal grandparents Joel and Oma Tyler, maternal grandparents, Marcella and Loy Self and a brother, Charles Troy Tyler.

She is survived by her mother, Karon Self Kuykendall; two daughters, Marcella Whitecotton of Aberdeen, Washington and Maegan Whitecotton of Morrilton, Arkansas; two sons, Christopher Whitecotton of Ozark and Charles Whitecotton of Paris; two sisters, Tamara Pettigrew and husband David of Van Buren, Arkansas and Lindsey Bishop and husband Dennis of Ozark; one brother, Richard Emberton of Ozark; five grandchildren, Ayden, Axel, and Remy Whitecotton all of Ozark, Brayden Thorsell of Aberdeen and Sienna Whitecotton of Morrilton.
