“ Martha Clark was one of the dearest people to me, from the late sixties until her last days. She loved hard.

In their prime, Troy and Martha had many foster kids that they doted on as if they were their own. Martha set the bar high in her care for those that were her kids- if only for a while. I cherish this example from her and have so many fond memories of Martha.

She will be so missed. Prayers of peace and comfort for her family.
