“ She was a great person and a wonderful teacher. Clay her son my friend she was always catching him with his back turned saying words he wasn't supposed to. Eventually he used off words and you know what it was. That's so funny to me, so I have a memory i can still laugh and remember. Clay I'm so sorry I didn't know, God bless you and comfort you ❤️

“Mrs. Acord was my English teacher at Ozark High School and along with myself and the Class of 1975 she not only was a great teacher but she was our Class Sponsor and she was always there to help us with class plays, decorating floats, raising money for prom and then finally our graduation. We loved her and she will be missed by many.
