“ Aunt Mary Beth was always a sweet Aunt to me. She wrote a 3 or 4 page letter each year to me and also to my Mom, Pat Holloway. It was her way of letting us know how she was doing and all the family was doing. I always looked forward to it and will miss getting them. We will all miss her. I felt she was a very strong woman, a great wife to Uncle Tommy, a great mother and grandmother to her kids and grandkids and would do anything for you if she could. I know that she set a great example and we loved her very much.
