“ Many amazing memories of my grandma. She would walk around their yard in with in Altus on Sundays and we would check on all the animals together. I was always afraid of walking up on a snake bc she would grab it by the tail and pop it's head. I remember one day I told her she was going to get bit and she just laughed at me. I loved being in the garden with her and her explaining what she was doing and why. She never complained about answering my questions or concerns. I know you and granddad are up on river banks in heaven fishing together again. I love you grandma!
