

Maxine Dunn

October 30, 1918 - October 31, 2020

Maxine Dunn, age 102, of Ozark, Arkansas left for her Heavenly Home on October 31, 2020 in Ozark. She was born October 30, 1918 in Cecil, Arkansas to Wesley Robert Cotton and Ethel Eubanks Cotton. She attended school in Cecil and graduated from Cecil High School in 1938. Maxine and her husband made their home in Cecil where they farmed, gardened and raised cattle on their land. She was a retired homemaker and was known to many as a pristine seamstress. She quilted for many years with the ladies of the Cecil Fire Department to raise money for the safety of her community. She was a devoted member of Oak Grove Community Church near Cecil where she was the congregational song leader. She served on the Eubanks Cemetery voluntary work committee, spending countless hours cleaning and seeing after the premises located in Cecil. Maxine was preceded in death by her husband, Davis Dunn.

She is survived by her son, Courtney Dunn and wife Anne of Fort Smith, Arkansas; a daughter, Rosemary Kirby and husband Thurman Kirby, Jr. of Ozark; granddaughter, Brooke Anne Mooney and husband Jaffet of Fort Smith; grandson, Robert Kirby and wife Chassie of Springdale, Arkansas; great-grandson, Taylor Kirby and great-granddaughter Madison Kirby of Springdale; great-granddaughter, Merritt Tyler Mooney of Fort Smith; and a sister, Betty Lockhart of Van Buren, Arkansas.

“ My memory of my aunt is her sitting in her living room with her pet parakeet perched on her finger. She would talk so lovingly to her parakeet who dearly loved my aunt. You will be missed by everyone who knew you.
