“ Aunt Opal was the best biscuit maker ever. She took this 19 year old girl and tried to teach me how she did it. I never quite got them like hers. She was a second mom to Bobby and we are forever grateful for that. We love you Aunt Opal. Our deepest sympathy to her family. Love and prayers, Jean Hall and Bobby Cagle

“ I shall remember her smile. She share with her smile with all of us. Her sincere devotion to her family. She was a wonderful support for her parents. Such wonderful memories of the your grandmother and grandpa. They always show us love. As has your mom and dad. They are together again. Love each of you. Mary Bennett
