“ Ouita will be remembered by our community for her true self; for her loving kindness, honesty, friendliness and caring for others. I've known her since elementary class and she never changed her personality, but only grew stronger. I'm so sorry for your loss.

Carol Cordell - December 28, 2019 at 02:12 PM

“ Thinking of you all as you remember and celebrate the life of Ouita. We will all miss her. Love and prayers for you all. Dad (Gene Smith) wants you to know he's praying for you. Sending our love.

“ *Quitita was a very good high school friend, one with a most caring and kind heart. She was always willing to lift a helping hand to others. And her laugh. It was contagious. To those who loved her, whether it be families or friends, may we rejoice in having known her and find peace and comfort in the coming days as we lean on each other and the Lord.
Blessings to all~~~~

“ For Ouita family and friends,

*Our loved ones leave the world, but never our hearts.
Sending warm, caring thoughts to wrap around your broken heart to keep it safe until you're strong again.*

Ouita was a childhood friend from church, school and she will be missed.

*Loving hugs,
