“ *my sympathy and prayers to the family.
pam has been a trooper with the long hard battle she has fought.
It was hard to lose her but now she is free of pain and can walk again.
may god wrap his arms of love and peace around all the family.

“ It is impossible for mom to make the trip with her health and I'm sorry to say we aren't able to do so either. I, myself, have a doctor's appt Friday morning that I can not miss or reschedule. I am so sorry to not be able to be there, but we were graciously able to say our goodbyes to Pam in person and we are so appreciative and thankful for that, for it meant so much. We do, however, thank God for bringing her into our lives and giving us the special honor of being related to her. She was one of a kind, a plain and simple country gal that had a heart bigger than the mountain she lived and died on. She touched many, many lives and all are all the better for having known her. It was sad to see her go, but knowing it is only for a short time before we'll all be together again makes it bearable. She loved hard and fought hard, but now she at last can rest and hurt no more. Her love did not die with her, but will go on and on as will her memory. We love her and love you all and we're so, so sorry for your great, great loss. We send our love and our sympathies. Lynn, Michael, Austin, and Juanita
