“ Patsy was a bundle of love that could not be contained in her earthly body. It had to pour out to any & all that met her. It was so very comfortable to get to know her, talk with her and pray with her. The top prayer for her was for Ricky and Tony, her two sons. She was forever holding them up in her prayers. Her response to a hello was "I Love You More" these were not empty words to her. She will be forever in my heart & I will continue prayers for her sons. She may have loved me more but I love her most. I can only imagine the hole left in the hearts of those who loved her. Good bye for now.

My dear sweet Sis! God asked me years ago while standing in Mother's kitchen if I would take care of you. I answered Yes!!!! This was over 20 yrs ago. What a Journey we've been on together along with Shirley beside me helping you. Everywhere we go people are drawn to you because of your amazing sweetness. You leave behind a wonderful Christian legacy. When you went home to be with Jesus the shirt you had on had the words "Be the Light". Thank you for never wavering! Ohhh how Shirley and I are going to miss you. Heaven has definitely became Sweeter! Until we meet again! I love you soooo much!!!!
