“ Best Father in law ever, but we both know you've been my Dad since I met Matt when I was 16, you and both bonus moms have loved me like your own, I'm very grateful! I've had many fun memories with you! One of my favorite - when you wrapped my Christmas presents over and over with multiple types of electrical and duct tape. Took forever to open, lol. Your son carries on those fun little things you do every so often. I'm going to miss our times going shooting in the back field, four wheeling down to the mulberry, and times when we could just come visit and have conversation over a great meal! I miss you already Dad! See you again when God calls us home, until then save some fishing up there for us!!! Love you!!! Brandy

Enjoy your family, friends and Nascar and enjoy walking on Gods homeland without ever being ill again. Love you always my love, your partner and best friend Patricia Ann Dingman! Brooks misses and loves his daddy*
