“ Uncle Bob was an incredible man. He had a positive impact on everyone's lives he touched. He and Aunt Nana were the reason my mother and her family moved to Arkansas, away from their entire family and social network, to bring the word of God to the people of Ozark. Even when my mother's own family outcast her during the pregnancy of her firstborn son, John, Aunt Nana, and Uncle Bob took her in and offered her love, guidance, and support. As a child, I remember spending every single holiday at their house. I have so many cherished memories of their welcoming home; swinging on the porch, opening gifts in the living room, playing the early Nintendo games, and many many meals at their humble but loving dining room table. Uncle Bob was a veteran, artist, maker, Reverend, family man, and a pillar to my family and my childhood. We will hold him in our hearts and hold on tightly to our cherished memories for many many years to come. We offer our condolences and pray that he rests peacefully.
