“ There are so many wonderful memories with Ron that it's hard to share but I remember before Ron and our daughter Billie could get married Ron insisted that he had to have our Blessings which we would not of turned it any other than cause Ron was a blessing in sooo many ways and I laugh when I think of Billie being in labor with her and Rons first born(Jackson) and Ron and I were in the labor room with her and the nurse came in and said only one could stay and I looked at Ron and told him.. You can stay Ron,I left the room and patiently awaited in the room outside the delivery room for Ron to come through and announce the new addition to the family,in which when he did..Ron was as white as cotton but ever sooo proud.Ron was always there to help not only us in a time of need but Ron would help anyone for he had a heart of gold,although Ron is no longer with us,his memories will be engraved on our hearts and lives forever along with our love for him.
