“ Max was always a kind, welcoming and helpful. My fondest memory of Max are of his evening invitation to join him and close friends for vodka drinks and cigarettes menthol for him of course, and talking about whatever came to mind , and he never judged but always welcomed anyone and their life story with a big heart and kind smiling face .

Thank You Max for the gift of meeting you

“ I worked with Ron in many capacities off and on from 1989 to 2004. He was a mentor, competitor, partner, and friend. I will never forget the good times and the tough times we went through during those years at Systems Contol, Envirotest, Keating, and Applus Technologies. After he retired to Tucson in 2004 we did not talk often. But I will always remeber him as a straight up guy, though he was sometime tough, who built many good relationships in his life. My condolences to his family.
