“ Got over a 100 memories with Cloe. Always picking on me at rodeos when he was judging them. Will never forget the shows that we had in logan county and the clown would place a chicken hat on his head because he would be on the fence during bull riding. Prayers for the family in the days to come. ”

“ Got a 100 stories over the years growing up next door to the Tunes. One more recent is with my boys, now in their 20s. We had a fire get out of hand on Christmas and it was covering the field pretty fast. Just when it was looking pretty bad, out of the woods came this Cowboy with hands full of fresh cut cedar branches. Cleo put out most of the fire before the fire department showed up. My boys still tell that story like if was John Wayne himself busting out of the woods coming to the rescue!!! Love you Cleo.... Thanks for being a Legend in a time we needed one!!

“ Uncle Cleo, I have so many fond memories of when I was barely a teenager visiting. One memory stands out more than most was when Grandpa, you, me and Lee (Jr), don't remember who else, were in the woods firing rifles. You and Grandpa were showing us how to shoot. You had an automatic and the shells were ejecting and hitting grandpa. He could not figure out what kept hitting him, he thought a horsefly had him. We had such a great laugh over that one!!! Aunt Cindy, Lacey and Robin, y'all are in my prayers and sending lots of love from SC. Uncle Cleo give our family love from us and hug my momma tight for me. What a wonderful reunion your having. Your niece, Ginger Lynn
