“ You are so much in our thoughts. It is never easy to lose those we love so dearly, but at the same time a comfort to know that they are at peace. I can still see Aunt Sammie's smile and hear her laughter. She loved family and fun times together, and she has left a lifetime of wonderful memories for all of us. What a gift! We send our love prayers that you find strength from those memories that will help you through the sadness.

“ My dear sweet children, Look pass your sorrow and you will see your mother fly away on angel wings. She's smiling and laughing because she sees what is ahead. Know that she's helping cooking good meals in Heaven and keeping everybody laughing. We love you so much and are there in spirit with you. My old body just won't allow me to make the trip and Johnny will not leave my side, though his love and prayers and spirit is with you also. We've here for you always.

Love,
Aunt Merrel

“ Heaven is ablaze with love, laughter, music and lots of friends and family welcoming Aunt Sammie home. As sad as it is for us, left behind, to let her go, we have to rejoice in the pure joy and happiness that is ready to surround her. As our family gathers to honor Aunt Sammie, my prayer is that the warm memories will comfort you and help you to let go in love, knowing that she is ready to join the big party that awaits her. Jim, Charlotte...we're here for you.

Now and Always,
Mary
