“ Shelby was a good friend of the Robin Hood Family. Always will be remembered as one of the first friends we met when we moved to Ozark back in 2000. When Robin passed away in 2016 he contacted me several times even though we had moved back to Monticello. Our family will forever remember Shelby.

I only met Shelby 3 times. The first time was a very hard time as I lost my Mom, but he handle it all with care, Second time was the day after when I came back to settle Mom matters and his kindness was so nice. Third time I could help myself seeing all his arrowheads I had to bring him one of my for his collection . I just know he touch my heart and I will always carry his kindness to my heart. My prayers for all his Family, Friends and all of Ozark. With Love Candy Barr
