“ Words cannot really take away the pain of your loss and the grief of going on from here, day by day.

I was a bit older than Gail at school. Tim was in my class, but he would remember me as Brenda McCormick back then. I remember how popular Gail was. Her laughter in the halls was infectious. She had long hair then and a smile like sunshine.

It's good to know that her life was lived with love, family, friends and hope. At a time such as this, it is hard to remember all the little things that meant so much to you through the years. It might help to write her a letter from time to time as the old memories surface.

In time, this horrible emptiness will change, though you never stop missing the one you love. You will find new ways of honoring her memory. That is the nature of loss.

Once in a while take out the letters that you wrote to her. You will be able to see that you are healing a bit, a sign of hope, not a sign of forgetting. She will always be in your heart, always.

My heart goes out to you. This is a sad time full of pain, but it will change, I have hope for you, until you are able to have hope for yourself.

God bless you, Brenda Penepent

“ I have known Gail for many years, it saddens me so to here she is no longer with us. I have many memories of our friendship. She always has the prettiest smile and her laugh was joyous. I'll always hold her close in my thoughts and prayers. You will be missed beyond measure my friend.

“ Her light always shined bright! I got the privilege to go to school with Gail and to get to know her. She always had a kind word and a smile. Her personality radiated around her. She was funny at time and serious at times but never uttered an unkind word that I know of. She will be missed by everyone who new her. This beautiful angel now has her wings! Rest in peace my friend! Prayers to all of her family and friends.
