“ We were friends when Steve was living with his mother in Fort Smith. We was attend Darby Junior high school. Steve was very good at all sports, a very gifted athlete. We were very good friends until my parents and our family moved away to California. We had talked on the phone several times over the years. Last time we talked he and his family were still living in Panama, and found out that he and his family had moved back to Arkansas. All the friends that we hung out with, my brother Allan Smith, Rick Tinder, and Gary Knight now know of Steve's passing. We all send our condolences to the family. Until we meet again brother.
