“ Right now she is with Bob, Tommie, Granddad and Grandma Lu, Kurt, Larry, Mike and Colleen, Harold and Margie and everyone else in this family that has preceded her. I wonder who was lucky enough to be called upon to come and take her home?

Although I am saddened by the news and the loss of not meeting her in person, it was so special being able to chat / text with Suzanne on occasion.

After losing my parents (Harold & Margie), I felt like I was all alone until I found a family telephone book.... hers was one of them. After talking with Brenda, Vicki and Suzanne, I realized I wasn't alone anymore - just like Suzanne isn't alone either Philip. She'll always be with us. We just have to share her with those she is with now.

Although the families of Simmons and Wisdoms live a little out of the way from one another, I know that we are still one. I'm truly thankful to you Suzanne for all of your kind words and sharing some of your thoughts from time to time across such a great distance.

Philip, know that she loved you beyond her words. Whenever she mentioned you, it was conveyed with every syllable.

Have peace Suzanne. We should all be lucky to draw the deepest strength for as long as you did and in the face of such an awful adversary. You cannot be replaced.

“ Phillip, I thought the world of Sue and loved her like a sister. She could make things happen and she never gave up. She fought so hard through this final battle. I know after losing Larry that your life has been turned inside out. I love you too and just know I'm just phone call away. Lori
