“ Lexi, Gone to soon. She was always so vibrant and outspoken. She was smart, talented, loving and caring. She helped take care of her little sister and brother like a mother would. She loved her Daddy much.

The times I spent with her, we laughed, cleaned house and cooked and even had a few tears. I remember showing her how to make my Hello Dollies for Christmas one year, she couldn't quit eating them, LoL. I am so glad to have know such a beautiful person inside and out. Lexi, I love you Chickaboo and wished I had more time with you. I will always remember our time together babygirl and you will forever be in my heart. ❤️ Love you too the moon and back 🥹
