“ 'So sad to just now learn of our losing Sylvia, a Ss Cyril&Methodius HS Detroit alum of mine: "Sylvia Car 'Snooks' was always seen carrying a pencil and sketching pad. Aside from her art work, she displayed her many talents as Girls' Student Manager ... Typist and Art Editor for the Yearbook ... Dramatics ... Glee Club" (Cyrilite 1957 yearbook) who also loved horses. RIP Sweet Syl, Joe Tomczyk (Blk Mtn, wNC)

“ Here it is Oct 5 and I just learned that my dear friend Sylvia has joined the angels. The very first time we met we became fast friends. We spent hours talking into the middle of the night when we would stop by and visit. She was truly one in a million. Rest in peace, Sylvia. We will meet again.

“ I will always treasure my time getting to know this unique person. She was so fun to be around and we talked about many things. She was the dispatch person on the the TV show CHIPS and often talked about having lunches with Mel Brooks. We both shared our love of mowing and our love for a shared dog, Hugo. Sylvia, you will be missed on our little mountain.
