

Thelma Beatrice Cowan

April 16, 1917 - March 5, 2011

Thelma Beatrice Cowan, 93, of Ozark died Tuesday in Ozark. She was a homemaker and member of the Jethro Pentecostal Church. She was born April 16, 1917 in Cass, Arkansas to Dr. J. W. and Victoria Plymale Davis. She was preceded in death by her husband Hulit Cowan, two brothers, Ed and Arlyn Davis, and four sisters: Elizabeth Faught, Lucy Mae Cowan, Frankie Turner and Mable Freeman. Funeral service will be at 2:00 PM Saturday, March 5, 2011 at Shaffer Funeral Home Chapel with Reverend John Bennett and Reverend Lamar Joy officiating, with burial at Oak Ridge Cemetery in Ozark, under direction of Shaffer Funeral Home of Ozark. She is survived by three daughters, Mary Bright of Olathe, Kansas, Marie Welch and husband Bob of Desoto, Kansas, and Rosa Lee Bond and husband Joe of Ozark; two sisters Jean Epperson and Ouita Childers of Desoto, Kansas, and a brother Warren Davis of Lawrence, Kansas; eight grandchildren: Linda Rockers, Ricky Bright, Mark Welch, Lisa Flannagan, Sara Ritter, Anthony Bond, Kimberly Bennett, and Beth Connell; fifteen great grandchildren and one great-great grandchild. The family will visit with friends at 6:00 – 8:00 PM Friday, March 4th, at Shaffer Funeral Home, 2315 West Commercial, Ozark, Arkansas.

Tribute Wall

“ Thelma Beatrice Cowan

January 30, 2023 at 02:28 AM