“ Tommy will always be remember by me when my husband, Ben Stephens (now deceased) pastored at Rehobeth Missionary Baptist Church in the early 60's. We spent many a Sunday in Cal and Ruby's home after church enjoying Ruby's great cooking.. Tommy was one of the youth at the church and will not be forgotten. Hope you find a great fishing hole up there, Tommy. Love you.

“ I first met Tommy when I was trimming my shrubs just after moving to the house on 5th street. He saw I was using manual clippers and offered/insisted I needed to use his electric hedge trimmer. He was a generous, funny, boisterous person who I remember as always being on the go. I am so sorry for the loss of such a big personality. May the Lord comfort Bobbie and Matt and all those who will feel his loss.
