“ Tracy was one of the good people in this world. His loyalty was unquestionable, his love of family and friends undeniable. He showed me a whole different view on life being a city boy. Kim, Sandy, Gary My deepest sympathy and I am sorry unto all of you that it took me 50 years to get to understand that. Thank you for being a great second cousin, you were always the best of us in so many ways. Okay, I am doing this while heading down the interstate but I just learned about you. I love you all even if you do not know.

“ When I moved to Ozark in 1980 and started school Tracy was one of the first people I met. He was always so kind and of course always smiling. He was a great teammate! My sympathies to all of his family.
