“ Walt liked to joke along and me being naive could never tell if he was being serious or not. One day I asked if he had a "flyswat" He replied, 'dont you mean a flyswatter? I said no Walt. I need a flyswat. We are the flyswatter. He got a kick out of that and told other people.

“ I want to say something I'm not sure I ever told Walt and wish I had! Thankbu Walt for always being my friend, thanks for always helping me with whastever I might need help with, for laughing at me so I coukd laugh at myself, and thank u for just being one of my dearest friends. I miss u already, but ur memory will be with me always,my giant friend! I sure wish losing someone was less hurtful! R.I.P. till we meet again!

“ My Dad was the greatest. He was so compassionate and caring always for others first.
We may have had some fights but we were best friends. Dad taught me so much about life, so much. You went away way to soon. I will never forget his calm living voice. God I am Going to miss you so much Dad. Fly high Dad I love you forever in my heart ❤️❤️❤️ this is something I never thought about but it happened. I'll see you again and we will go deer hunting again. I love you so much ❤️❤️

“Walter always had a smile for you. We went through 11 grades together and I always considered him to be my friend even though we lived many miles apart. When we saw each at a store after I moved back we re-established that friendship. Will miss that smiling face❤️

“My heart and prayers for strength are with Walter’s family. I am Walter’s second cousin. I remember summers spent on uncles farm in Coal Hill. Warm breezes, picking peaches, running barefoot, throwing cow pies at each other. I still treasure those times. A special hugs to my Aunt Reba.
