“ One of the most beautiful women I ever saw as a young child. I thought she could be a movie star, I was looking at the outside appearance then. Later as I saw the inner beauty she became more beautiful than any movie star.

Her love of family and of the land that God gave us to plant and to harvest. She was a wonderful Woman with a full life of family & friends.

She had so much knowledge of the years gone by of living off of the land, hard work was not a problem, she shared those lessons with anyone wanting to learn.

She left time for having some fun bowling in a league & travel.

Her love for her Husband & Family had no limits. She will be missed by many.

Life's just a little sadder for me right now I loved staying close and up to date on her life through facebook with 250 miles distance apart. She loved Her Lord & Savior and passed that love on down to her children & grandchildren. She's home now in her Heavenly Home with Our Heavenly Father to join all of those that went on before her.

*All my love to my Cousins
